FALL BIBLE STUDY

Fr. Turner is pleased to present a six-week Bible study on the Book of Ecclesiastes. Autumn, as the season of maturity, is an apt time to ponder the teachings of Ecclesiastes. It's considered part of the Bible's wisdom literature, pointing us to detachment so we can find genuine abundance. Here is a description of the book from a well-known commentary:

Ecclesiastes is one of the most atypical books of the Old Testament, a composition virtually unique both in its genre and in the manner in which it voices opinions seemingly contrary to the mainstream of biblical teaching. In it, a persona who seems to identify himself as King Solomon engages in a philosophical thought-experiment about the meaning of life that leads him to the brink of despondency. Despite the darkness of the book, however, believers through the ages have found solace and catharsis in its pages, and spiritual writers have continued to recommend meditation on it as an aid to detachment from the temporal world and its fleeting pleasures.

John Bergsma and Brant Pitre, A Catholic Introduction to the Bible: The Old Testament, vol. 1 (San Francisco, CA: Ignatius Press, 2018), 621.

Open to all parishioners of St. Ambrose and St. Elizabeth of the Trinity. We'll meet four consecutive Wednesday evenings at St. Augustine in the Parish Center from 7-8 p.m. beginning October 8.

Please sign up and join us! You can sign up through flocknote or by calling the parish office.

Best Wishes to

ADULT CONFIRMATION CLASSES

Adult Confirmation class for the Fall will begin this week on Tuesday, September 30, 2025, for adults who are 18 or older who have not received this sacrament and would like to. In addition to being at least 18 years of age, candidates must also have been baptized in the Roman Catholic Church, have received the Sacrament of First Holy Communion, be able to provide sacramental records or other suitable proof of having received those sacraments, and if married, must be in a valid Catholic marriage, or have resolved all questions of sacramental marriage.

Classes will be held on Tuesday evenings, from 7:00-8:30 p.m. at St. Therese Parish Center (555 Middletown Avenue/North Haven). If all requirements are met, this six-week preparation will enable the candidate to receive the sacrament of Confirmation on Tuesday, November 18, 2025, at the Cathedral of St. Joseph in Hartford.

All forms and information will be available on the first night of class. To register for the class, or if you have any questions, please call the parish office at (203) 239-5378.

This week at the nursery school:

In addition to our social/emotional curriculum over the past few weeks, our friends have also been learning about apples and fall! Whether they made a graph of apples, made apple sauce, used apples for art, or even tasted them, our little friends are full of apple knowledge! As a culminating activity, our children and their parents will meet us at the apple orchard for apple picking, pumpkin picking, a hayride, and of course ice cream!

FOOD DRIVE OCTOBER 4/5

Social Action will be holding a food drive the week-end of October 4/5. Bags will be available next week-end with a list attached of needed items. The food pantry although housed in the North haven Congregational Church, is supported by all the churches in North Haven. The food pantry is currently low on all items which make this food drive critical for the people who come one a month for groceries.

We do not accept monetary donations. If you prefer to make a monetary donation, please do so directly with North Haven Congregational Church.
